BEAD Announces Two Public Art Requests for Proposals!!!

BEAD announces requests for proposals for two public art projects:

- Garage Art Artwork
- 4th and Washington Fence Mural Project

Deadline for submissions for both projects is December 4, 2009. Visit www.bloomington.in.gov/bead to download RFPs or for additional information.

Formations on Exhibit at City Hall in December

The City of Bloomington and BEAD will showcase Formations, an arashi shibori textile installation by Daren Pitts Redman in the City Hall Atrium from December 1 - December 30, 2009. Arashi shibori is the process of rolling fabric on a pole, binding with string, twisting, scrunching and dyeing to produce patterns which are reminiscent of rain.

Pitts-Redman created the floating textile forms in response to the exhibit space and to reflect the colors in the natural wooded area surrounding her home and studio in Brown County. The opening reception for Formations is Thursday, December 3rd from 6:00pm to 8:00pm. The exhibition will be open for viewing from December 4th to December 30th, 2009, Monday through Friday, 8:00am to 5:00pm. City Hall will be closed on December 25.

Donate to Stuff-A-Bus at WonderLab in the BEAD!

The only downtown stop for Stuff-A-Bus will be outside WonderLab this Friday from 9:30 am to 8:30 pm. Please, help kick off the giving season by donating new toys and other holiday gifts to be distributed to local families in need! Double your impact by purchasing these items from downtown retailers, several of whom offer games, toys, jewelry, and clothing for children and teens. Or, consider donating tickets to upcoming family-friendly cultural events. To encourage donations, the WonderLab gift store will offer 10% off gift store purchases on Friday. Stuff-A-Bus is a joint effort of Bloomington Transit, B97, and the Salvation Army.

BAAC Creates Holiday Magic at The Waldron

The Bloomington Area Arts Council (BAAC) and The Beaux Arts Auxiliary proudly announce their first annual Winter fundraiser "Christmas at the Waldron!" This four day event is based on a "partnership of fundraisers" and helps nonprofits and artists raise funds during the holidays by providing them with space in The Waldron. So mark your calendars for December 3rd, 4th, 5th, & 6th when the historic John Waldron Arts Center will be turned into a magical palace of holiday delights! General admission for full day pass for non-eating events is $5 for adults and $2 for children. For food related events including a full Breakfasts and the Teas, the ticket price of $10 for adults and $5 for children includes all other events and story times. There is no further cost to any of the other events. For a full schedule and to purchase tickets, visit www.bloomingtonarts.info or at the gift shop in The Waldron at the start of the event.

Shalom Seeking Donations of Artwork

Shalom Community Center is seeking donations of artwork made of recycled or found materials for its spring Re:New Gala. With this gala, Shalom is working to capture the talents and imagination of local artists, partnering with them to draw public attention to the needs of people experiencing extreme poverty in our community. The gala will raise money to help prevent and address issues of homelessness in the area. The evening will include a silent art auction, dinner, dancing, live music performed by the Stardusters, and a special performance by Grammy Award-winning singer Sylvia McNair. For more information, contact Whitney Gent at whitney@shalomcommunitycenter.org, or call 812-334-5734.

The Art Hospital Seeking New Members

Are you a local artist in need of a space to work? Do you want to curate shows, and assist in local and traveling artists' exhibitions? Then The Art Hospital is just right for you!

The Art Hospital is a not-for-profit, cooperative art studio and gallery space that exists to provide low cost studio, exhibition, and performance space for artists in Bloomington; to enhance local culture by providing a venue for alternative forms of expression; and to provide resources for the growth and development of young creative artists.

Art Hospital is currently booking shows for this winter, and they also still have two studio spaces available. If you think you might be interested in either, please email hospital.gallery@gmail.com. We have a handful of studio spaces that will be opening up over the summer and fall. Hospital members receive a personal studio space as well as opportunities to show work in our gallery. If you'd like more information on Art Hospital membership and to apply, please respond to wclaytor@gmail.com
